

TO QUALIFY FOR PROMOTIONAL DISCOUNT PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING POLICIES:

A Storybook Party reserves the right to promote its business by handing out business cards to potential clients at your event. We request that our logo and/or name is used for promotional purposes on any publicized event promotion. We will publicize your event and will help with marketing and email/ online promotion but are not responsible for ticket sales.

A Storybook Party also reserves the right to post pictures from all promotional events and to publicize the event (if open to the public) on its website and/or social media sites.

Promotional pricing is available for corporate/charity events ONLY, not for personal parties.

We request a changing area for our staff if possible. For any mascot appearance over 60 minutes we request a comfort break every 25 minutes for 5 minutes to cool off in a private area.

Any event that requires characters to arrive more than 30 minutes prior to start time will incur an additional charge (to be discussed prior).

Stage shows and anything above a typical meet and greet that involves a sound system or crowd control will require an additional charge for a staff member to facilitate.

Mileage will be charged (at standard IRS rate) for events that are further than a 40 mile roundtrip from our 18049 base. We carpool as standard but any character count over 4 may incur an additional fuel surcharge.

Deposits are non refundable. If an event has to be rescheduled we will happily work with you to rearrange the date.

A Storybook Party requests that we are the exclusive "Character" company at your event and reserve the right to cancel if another company that offers the same services is there on the day without prior knowledge.

A Storybook Party and its owner hold no rights to characters trademarked (TM) and/or copyrighted ©. We are not affiliated in any way, nor do we by fact or inference imply to hold any rights or authorization, rights of association or sponsorship or endorsement of the use of any copyrights or trademarks as held by any individuals, or companies mentioned. Please only use our images or non copyright pictures to publicize your event to avoid confusion.

Appearances provide a meet and greet opportunity for your customers to interact and take pictures with our characters. No additional activities are provided but may be added if discussed.

Additional activities include: Stage shows, Princess Training, Superhero Training, Jedi Training, Glitter tattoos and Face Paints, storytelling.